Dialogues

Act III, Scene I

Romeo: "You have killed my friend Mercutio. Why did you do that?"

Tybalt: "He wanted to fight and I just tried to save the honour of my house, the Capulets."

Romeo: "As you killed my friend and called me a fool, now you will get what you deserve!"

Tybalt and Romeo fight. Tybalt dies.

Romeo: "What a sad day, as my friend and the cousin of my dear beloved had to die. Why, why?

Act III, Scene 5

Julia: "Do you really want to go? Stay here with me."

Romeo: "I must go and live or stay and die. The sun is rising and the day is coming."

Julia: "No, it is not the sun. It is just a star sparkling in the night."

Romeo: "If you want me to stay – I will. They can catch me and kill me if it is your wish that I stay here with you."

Julia: "No, the sun is rising and the day is coming. Leave me or they will find you! And this would be our end."

Romeo: "If this is so, I'll leave you now. One kiss and I will be gone."

Julia: "Will I ever see you again in my life?"

Romeo: "I have no doubt that we will."

Julia: "O God, I have a bad feeling."

Romeo: "Trust me and look into my eyes."

Julia: "Oh Romeo..."

Romeo: "Goodbye, my love. I have to go."
